ARKANSAS TECH UNIVERSITY

FACULTY ACCOMPLISHMENTS

ROBERT CHARLES BROWN
- PRESIDENT

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, please allow me to offer our most sincere congratulations and express our appreciation to all of our faculty colleagues on the significant level of accomplishment which is recalled in the pages of this volume. For over 100 years now, Tech has been dedicated to excellence in teaching, scholarship and service for the benefit of our students and the people of Arkansas. This high level of scholarship and the dedication exhibited by our faculty are the reasons the University is widely known for care and concern in meeting the educational needs of our constituents.

JOHN WATSON
- VICE PRESIDENT FOR ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

The mission statement of Arkansas Tech University indicates that we offer a wide range of traditional and innovative programs which form the basis for lifelong learning to a diverse student body. This record of faculty accomplishments demonstrates that the Tech faculty is a diverse group of professionals committed to the principle of lifelong learning. The Office of Academic Affairs appreciates the excellent work of our faculty members who pursue these scholarly activities in addition to their commitment to excellence in the classroom. We extend congratulations to our colleagues who are recognized in this issue.

FACULTY AWARDS OF EXCELLENCE

Faculty Award of Excellence for Teaching

Dr. Paola Gemme, Associate Professor of English

Dr. Paola Gemme was awarded her B.A. in English summa cum laude by the University of Genoa, Italy, in 1990. She was the recipient of a Fulbright scholarship to pursue graduate studies at the Pennsylvania State University, from which she graduated with a Ph.D. in English in 1998. She was Visiting Assistant Professor of American Studies at the University of Genoa from 1999 to 2001, when she was hired by Arkansas Tech University. She is the author of Domesticating Foreign Struggles: The Italian

Risorgimento and Antebellum American Identity, published by the University of Georgia Press in 2005. Her current research interest include the development of the discipline of American Studies in Italy, Latin@ literature, and academic motherhood.

Dr. Gemme has a record of excellence in teaching: she was selected for the Graduate Assistant Award for Outstanding Teaching at Penn State and voted one of the best five teachers in the College of Liberal Arts at the University of Genoa. At Arkansas Tech, she teaches American Studies, American Literature, and Teaching English as a Second Language. She has designed courses in "Global Views of the United States," "Latin@ Experiences in the United States," "Wealth and Poverty in the American Experience," and "Immigrant Literatures." Her teaching aims at developing cross-cultural and global competence and at breaching the gap between university and community through outreach projects.

Faculty Award of Excellence for Scholarship and Creative Activity

Dr. Jason S. Ulsperger, Associate Professor of Sociology

Dr. Jason S. Ulsperger received his B.S. from the University of Central Arkansas and M.A. from Arkansas State University. Focusing his studies on Criminology and Gerontology, he received his Ph.D. in Sociology from Oklahoma State University in 2003. He came to Arkansas Tech as an Assistant Professor of Sociology in August of 2006 and became Associate Professor in 2012. His 2008 article in Sociological Spectrum, "The Social Dynamics of Elder Care," won the Mid-South Sociological Association's award for publication of the year. The article provided a framework for his recently published manuscript Elder Care Catastrophe. The book presents a typology of elder abuse in nursing homes and promotes culture change in long-term care.

Ulsperger is the editor of three oral history collections involving people living in the Arkansas River Valley. He is the primary author of 20 peer-reviewed journal articles, along with 22 book chapters and encyclopedia entries. He has presented his research over 30 times at professional conferences, including meetings sponsored by the Mid-South Sociological Association, American Sociological Association, and International Sociological Association. In addition, he has participated as an editorial reviewer for Sociological Forum, Aging and Society, and the Journal of Contemporary Ethnography. His current research concerns the link between ritualized strain and mass homicide.

Faculty Award of Excellence for Service

Dr. Susan J. Underwood, Professor of College Student Personnel

Dr. Susan J. Underwood, Associate Professor in the Department of College Student Personnel, is the recipient of the 2013 Faculty Excellence Award in Service. She holds a Ph.D. in Higher Education Administration from New Mexico State University and M.A. Ed. and B.S. degrees from Western Kentucky University. Prior to her arrival at Arkansas Tech University in Fall 2001, she held faculty positions at the University of Houston-Clear Lake and Clemson University and student personnel positions at New Mexico State University, Indiana University and Western Kentucky University. Dr. Underwood has exemplified service to the university in numerous ways during her thirteen years at Arkansas Tech. She has served as the inaugural Department Head of the College Student Personnel Department and led the Department in its development of one of the nation's first online college student personnel master's degrees. She has also served as a member of the Faculty Senate, Graduate Council and University Assessment, Student Success, Student Affairs, Higher Learning Commission (HLC) Self-Study Steering and Strategic Planning Committees. In addition, she regularly serves as a Bridge to Excellence Mentor. She has been Faculty Usher for Graduation; International Student Work Program Mentor; Chair of the HLC Self-Study Criteria 4 Committee and has chaired numerous faculty and administrative assistant search committees.
